CARNIVAL IS NOW ON

Exhibition at Broad-Street Park for Chimborazo Hospital

GREAT VARIETY OF SHOWS

Several Thousand People Yesterda Made the Rounds of the Midway, and Even More Saw the Free Exhibitions-Attractions.

Amid a blaze of electric lights and the familiar sights and sounds that recall the istreet carnivals of 1900 and 1901, the Heck Carnival Company opened a week's engagement at the Broad Street Park yesterday, under the auspices of the Chimborazo Hospital Association and for that object. The attendance on the opening might was very gratifying, considering the number of rival attractions, Bostock's closing night and the presentation of attractive bills at the two theatres. Several thousand people were on the carnival grounds during the day and overning, and various shows that compose the Midway did a very fair opening might's business.

The Heck Company arrived here yesterday from Lynchburg, where it has just closed a successful week under the auspices of the United Commercial Travelers, and it comes with the commendation of the people of that city. The park is well adapted for such an exhibition or scries of exhibitions, for there are eight or ten, all of which were liberally patroized. Besides the separate shows, for which a small fee was charged, there are free exhibitions in the way of wire walking and other feats well worth seeing. The various shows form the circumference of an ellipse, in the center of which is the Ferris Wheel, with ten carliages, and over which wire is stretched. The entire enclosure is ablaze with electric lights, to which the glare of flashights is added at intervals during the Fvening. The familiar cries of the barkers, as they proclaim the merits of their shows, tend to greatly enliven the scene. Besides the shows, the usual variety of games in which a small element of chance enters flourish. street carnivals of 1900 and 1901, the Heck Carnival Company opened a week's en-refers flourish.

The shows are above the average of stinerant carnivals, and compare favorably with the best class of attractions. The wild animal show is a very creditable one, and even those who have seen Bostock's will find this one interesting. Besides, there is at the carnival a dog and peny show, which will please the children and the older folks alike.

As a class the shows are very satisfactory and are clean and unobjectionable. Of course, there is the Turkish theate, the well known muscle dance, but even this is not such as to offend the most refined.

Those present were Messrs, Gunst, chairman; Clowes, Donahoe, Hall, Hobson, E. W. Miner, John B. Minor, Norton, Sattefield and Williams. The usual monthly statistical reports of the officers were read, and filed and the pay-roll and bills of expense were ordered to be paid.

A resolution referred by the Common of the wolfered almshous to $42.50 per month was considered and approved, and the pay-rolled to be returned to Inspired, an attractive musical feature. The Ferris wheel, the merry-go-round and the palmist are among the other candidates for the dines of the Carnival visitors.

The attendance last night was very satisfactory for the opening night, and during the week. The show will continue all the week. Yesterday several excursions brought many out-of-town people to the city, and nearly all of these founds. The best of order was maintained on the grounds and in the vicinity and the crowds were well handled by the trolley lines. Altogether the week's exhibition promises to net the Chimborazo Hospital fund a snug nucleus.

DID HE BURN WEST POINT

Walter Evans Arrested and Held on Suspicion.

HIS ALLEGED CONFESSION

Well-Known Painter, Suspected of Firing Town, Brought to Richmond for Fear of Mob Violence-Given a Hearing.

Another fire in West Point on Saturday about midnight, destroying another house in that devastated town, was followed brinday by an even more startling event—the arrest of a well-known white man on suspicion that he is the incendiary to whom the recent conflagration and subsequent fires in the West Foint metropolis are due. The man arrested is Waiter Evans, of this city, a painter well-known here and in West Point. His detention is the result of statemen's made by him while under the influence of liquor, and a eated to a minister and reiterated in the presence and hearing of others.

liquor, and \ eated to a minister and reiterated in the presence and hearing of others.

The arrest of Evans on such a charge in a town recently in such terror of the firebrand naturally created no little excitement, and as a matter of abundant precaution against any ebuiltion of the popular feeling that might amount to violence, Evans was brought to this cly, on the special excursion train Sundaynight in the custody of a county officer and of Police Officer Toler, of this cly, who was among the excursionists. While there was a considerable crowd at the railway station, and the arrest and removal of Evans was the absorbing top ic, there is authority for the statement that the man was never in real danger of lynching. It is hard to say what might not have developed during the night nad the man been kept at West Foint and the news of the arrest and the ground for it become universally known.

Evans was placed in the baggase car of the train, and the run to this city made without attempt upon the prisoner along the route. Arriving here, the man was confined at the Station House until yesterday morning, when he was taken back to West Point on the fearly train.

CONFESSED TO MINISTER.

The arrest of the painter was the result of an alleged confession made by him to a minister of West Point-Rev. J. E. McCarinoy. It is stated that he went to the minister, and while still suffering from the effects of his spice, asked whether there was forgiveness for a man who would burn a town. It is said that he had made statements to others in the nature of inquiries as to what would be done with a man if he confessed firing the town.

It was this talk, culminating in the alleged confession or implication to the min-ister, that warranted the arrest of the man. There is still nothing more than a suspicion against the man, based on his suspicion against the man, based on his own statements, made at a time when he was hardly responsible for anything he said. Meny do not attach credence to the alleged confession, regarding it as the miunderings of intoxication. The town has been so thoroughly terrorized by fire recently that no chances were taken, and the case will be investigated by the and the case will be investigated by the authorities. If the man under arrest ac tually has any knowledge of the responsibility for the fires no effort will be spared to establish the truth.

The hearing of Evans was set for yes

The hearing of Evans was set for yesterday, but owing to the fact that there was no evidence on which to hold him, it was decided until this evening at 6. So far as man except his own statements, and insinuations, all of which he is said to have decided when sober. He has even denied making any confession or anything equivalent to one.

THE WEST POINT END The following special from West Point, received last night, gives the story of the arrest of Evans, and of the fire which preceded it.

received last night, gives the story of the arrest of Evans, and of the fire which preceed it.

WEST POINT, May 18.—Another midnight fire struck terror to the hearts of the people on Saturday night. Owing to the calm, the many trees and the prompt and active work of fire department and people generally, the fire was confined to the burning of the residence and out buildings of Mr. E. J. Clemens, a popular citizen and business man of West Point. His family barely escaped. He lost most of his furniture; no insurance. On his house he had only 460 insurance. It is believed to be the work of an incendiary. Owing to threats made from time to time on the streets that he would burn the town, by Walter Evans, of Richmond, a painter by trade, and statements made eyesterday morning while under the influence of liquor, Mr. Evay's was arrested about 5 P. M. Sunday; taken care of until the excursion train left for Richmond at $ P. M. when, accompanied by a guard, he was taken to Richmond for safe-keeping. While thre was considereable excitement there was no time any real danger of mob violence. The prisoner was retuned to West Point at $ A. M. to-day and lodged in the local fall. Given Decision Over Warren Zurbrick In Tenth Round.

in Tenth Round.

(By Associated Press.)

BUFFALO. N. Y.. May 18.—Frank Erne, the former lightweight champlon, won from Warren Zurbrick at Fort Erie to-night. Erne was given the decision on a foul in the tenth round.

Zurbrick started in with the evident purpose of rushing matters, but Erne's clever footwork prevented this plan being put into effect. Instead of rushing, Zurbrick sparred away from his opponent. The first two rounds were tame.
Then Erne cut loose in the third and forced matters. In the fourth there was a mix-up. Zurbrick seemed to have the fight well in hand. Erne appeared to regain some of his old-time form in the seventh and eighth and ninth. He fought cautiously. In the tenth Zurbrick laced Erne about the head in a clinch. The referee cautioned him. A moment later Zurbrick again fouled in a clinch. Erne drove some stinging smashes into Zurbrick's face and the latter clinched and punched victously. The referee then gave the fight to Erne.
